

Press Release

For immediate release March 22, 2007

For more information contact:

Aundrea N. Cordle,

Fairfield County Job and Family Services

Human Resources & Public Relations Director

(740) 687-6705

cordla@odjfs.state.oh.us

CIRCUS NIGHT AT JOB AND FAMILY SERVICES

As a part of the Fairfield County Family Festival, Fairfield County Job and Family Services is hosting its annual Circus Night on Thursday, April 19. From 5:00-6:30 p.m. the agency will be transformed into a circus big top with costumed characters and fun for the whole family. The P.T. Reptile Show will return this year with alligators, lizards, snakes, turtles, scorpions, and exotic spiders. The Amazing Meeker, the Balloon Man, and several clowns will be entertaining children and adults alike. A new attraction this year will be a special presentation by the K-9 Unit from the Fairfield County Sheriff's Office. Other activities will include face painting, a surprise fish pond, and a "Build-A-Buddy" workshop. Free hot dogs and other refreshments will be served throughout the event. Certified car safety technicians will be conducting free checks on child car seats to ensure proper installation. Join us for an evening of fun and entertainment... all free of charge.

Job and Family Services is located at 239 West Main Street, Lancaster, Ohio.