

This is a printer friendly version of an article from lancastereagle.com
To print this article open the file menu and choose Print.

Back

Article published Jul 3, 2007

Sheriff Phalen to present bicycles to Job & Family Services

LANCASTER — Fairfield County Sheriff Dave Phalen will present numerous bicycles to Fairfield County Job & Family Services, 239 W. Main Street, at 9 a.m. Thursday. The bicycles will benefit foster care and other children and adults in need.

The bicycles are unclaimed, recovered bikes that would normally be sold at Sheriff's Auction. For more information, contact the Advocate Hot Line at 740-687-6832.
