

December 15, 2008

Eagle-Gazette's annual Food and Toy Drive Tuesday

Staff Report

LANCASTER — The Lancaster Eagle-Gazette will be holding its second annual food drive on Tuesday.

Residents are asked to match the truckload of nonperishable food items they donated in 2007 — 2,000 pounds — and bring a toy for a child ages 3 to 12.

And the Eagle-Gazette is challenging businesses to at least match the community's food donations from 2007.

Businesses should label their donations or identify the company the donations come from when they drop off the items.

The winning team will be honored by the Eagle-Gazette.

The food and toy drive helps to support the Lancaster-Fairfield County Food Pantry at Community Action and Fairfield County Job & Family Services.

New toys and nonperishable goods will be collected between 6 a.m. and 6 p.m. Tuesday in the Eagle-Gazette's parking lot, 138 W. Chestnut St., Lancaster. You don't even have to leave your vehicle, just turn it over to one of the volunteers in the parking lot and they'll take care of it.
